Education for Climate Coalition: community co-creation for sustainability

Organiser: European Federation of Education Employers

After a short presentation of the journey that led to the creation of the Education for Climate Coalition, the webinar will be a conversation between community members of this participatory community of practice for students, teachers and education stakeholders facilitated by the European Commission. Participants will showcase the value and dynamics of this community to share, collaborate and co-create around issues related to learning for the green transition and sustainable development.

The panel discussion and the Q&A will be composed of 5 members contributing to the community with different responsibilities, roles and backgrounds to illustrate the diversity of the community and the possibilities it offers. This will be moderated by the Education for Climate Secretariat.
