

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP NETWORK EUROPE
(ELNE)

European Educational Leadership Week, online

12th February 2024, 01:45 PM - 03:00 PM CET

Attractiveness of studying and working in vocational education and training - the role of collaborative school leadership

Organiser: European Trade Union Committee for Education

The webinar will focus on collaborative leadership in the initial VET institutions and apprenticeship, from the perspective of quality management, learning and teaching, apprenticeship organisations, and decision-making.

Agenda

Introduction – Moderator, Agnes Roman (ETUCE)

Slido poll 1

Overcoming staff shortages in the VET sector by providing professional support to VET institutions, staff and management by EU level research (7') - Irene PSIFIDOU, CEDEFOP

Outcome of Slido poll 1

Slido poll 2

Challenges and solutions to tackle staff shortages in the VET sector in Portugal by collaboration within and beyond VET institutions (7') - Joaquim Santos, Portugal National Federation of Education (FNE), Portugal

Impact on staff shortages in VET on students and apprentices and students' involvement to decision-making (7') - Nathan Weber, OBESSU

Impact on staff shortages in VET on parents and solutions found by collaborations with other school actors (7') - Arja Krauchenberg, European Parents' Association (EPA), Austria

Impact on staff shortages in VET on education management and solutions found by collaborate school leadership in Lithuania (7') - Nora Pileičikienė, Association of Lithuanian Vocational Education and Training Institutions (LPMA), Lithuania

Outcome of Slido poll 2

Discussion

Conclusions and Goodbye words

