

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP NETWORK EUROPE
(ELNE)

European Educational Leadership Week, online

14th February 2024, 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM CET

Research Corner: Transformation of the Educational Profession in/to leadership practices

Organiser: Educational Leadership Network Europe

This webinar will welcome the authors of the most inspiring research papers received to the ELNE Call for Research Summaries on ‘Transformation of the Educational Profession in/to leadership practices’. Researchers will engage in a lively discussion about how the concept, roles, tasks, and responsibilities of the educational profession have changed in recent years and the applicability and transferability of their findings.

Draft Agenda

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 11:30 – 11:37 | Welcome words and Ice-breaker |
| 11:37 – 11:49 | Research Showcase: The role of adaptative leadership support in creating an institution-tailored learning environment – Katalin Tóth-Pjeczka, Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary |
| 11:49 – 12:01 | Research Showcase: The Cornelsen School Leadership Studies– School leaders’ perspectives on school transformation in Germany - Dr. Sarah Fichtner, FiBS Research Institute on the Economics of Education and Social Affairs |

12:01 – 12:13

The Learning Turbine: An aligned model for continuous development of teachers and school leaders – Loes van Wessum, European School Heads Association

12:13 – 12:28

Roundtable: How the evolution of the educational systems impacts the teaching profession - moderated by Maria Zenios, University of Central Lancashire

12:28

Closing

